

BUILDINGS

POWER & MONITORING, INC. staff have prepared drawings and specs for more than 50 buildings involving electric services, UPS systems, emergency generators, lighting, specialty systems, computer networks, and automation systems. These services were provided for the following Customers:

Building Project included:

- * CitiCorp, Hagerstown, MD – Renovations to Kitchen areas at corporate office building.
- * CitiCorp, Hagerstown, MD – Renovations to two buildings Lobby areas including bridge between buildings, including HVAC, lighting, power, fire alarm, and security functions.
- * U.S. Department of the Interior – modernization, constructability review.
- * Highwood Properties, Owings Mills, MD – Design of Lighting, Power distribution, and signal systems including technology wiring for four story office building.
- * DGS, State of MD – Design of State Police Barracks “H”, Waldorf, MD including fuel islands, maintenance shop and radio tower.
- * Agora Publishing, Baltimore, MD – Four story building renovation into a corporate office building.
- * Department of Interior Building, Washington DC – Peer design review of construction documents and constructability review.
- * Arial Rios Building, Washington DC – code upgrade for high rise building on electrical and Fire Detection systems.
- * Phoenix Color, Hagerstown, MD – Design of Corporate Office Building including lighting, power, special systems, telecommunications pathways, emergency power and campus wide management plan.
- * Elgin Apartment Building, Baltimore, MD – Renovation of 8 apartment building including new service, telephone, CATV, etc.
- * DGS, State of MD – Civic Plaza Building, Baltimore, MD – Fire Alarm replacement for 13 level high rise building with multiple elevator banks.